with holidays

"They are actually dancing!" To the surprise of some activity directors some ambulatory residents get up and dance for the first time in a while others are doing some serious toe tapping. I have a bit of magic going on with simultaneous 3 part harmonies, produced by a computerized device that can sample my voice and instantly copy it in harmonies, which I program. Suffice it to say it has been a jaw dropping surprise to many people!

On most songs I use pre-recorded backing tracks of a band to accompany the guitar and voice for a fuller, more rythmical sound. This system greatly increases the "toe-tapping index"! . I use the rare Roland GR20 guitar synthesizer to make my guitar sound like a Banjo – Piano, Saxaphone, Trombone, Vibraphone, Sitar, and more to add some wondrous magic.

It's a one-man band!

"On occasion my ukulele or harmonica etc. gets used for some "flavor". I LIKE TO HAVE FUN!!!

I am a professional who has entertained from Maine to Key West since 1966 as a full time musician/vocalist/ entertainer, who has performed at many, many senior facilities since 1992 in the southeastern New England area.

For a senior audience, I will run the gamut with lots and lots of material, performing real oldies, from traditional sing-a-longs, to the Andrews Sisters, Mills Bros., Frank Sinatra, Bing Crosby, Elvis, etc. The 20's, 30's, 40's, 50's, 60's, and more! I even present a few "senior friendly" modern tunes on occasion. In choosing songs for the program, attention is paid to the age group and era most familiar to the audience at hand.

I can play and sing over 500 songs.

Themes are fun...

a wonderful selection for Christmas and other holidays such as, Halloween, Patriotic & 4th of July.

Old Western theme: I have the right western songs and attire (get out the cowboy hats – I can bring mine)

Try a 40's theme or the 50's theme.

We can do the Hawaiian Luau, in winter or summer. with at least an hour of ukulele and Hawaiian and island music. Cookouts in the summer are always enjoyable!

The trip around the world has interested diverse ethnicities with songs in Italian, Irish, Portuguese, Jewish, French, Spanish, Polish, Scottish, Gaelic, Brazilian, Hawaiian, Swedish etc.

I also had played in Irish pubs over the years and have a great Irish theme show. It is always fun!! Spontaneous humor has had audiences laughing and interacting everywhere
